North Carolina Regional Lacers

The North Carolina Regional Lacers (NCRL) is a regional group dedicated to the study and appreciation of all types of lace, but especially bobbin lace, needle lace, and tatting. We are composed of numerous local lace groups and meet once a year for Lace Day in the spring. The members also host lace workshops throughout the year. The NCRL is a charter group of the International Organization of Lace, Inc. (IOLI). Membership in the NCRL includes quarterly NCRL newsletters, biennial Directory/Handbook, and access to the NCRL Lace Library. Membership runs from July 1 to June 30. You receive all four issues of the Newsletter regardless of when you apply.

Dues are $15.00 per year. You can pay for one year or two years ($30) at a time. Mail completed form and check to the treasurer. Make out the check to NCRL.
